Dearest Barbara,

all I have to say would fill twenty of these books or more if I could express it. Barbara, I love you. You're the finest girl I believe I've ever known. You're so sweet and thoughtful that sometimes I can't believe it's possible. As long as we've been friends and run around together we've never had a fight. I know it's because you're so sweet and loveable. No-body with any sense could ever be angry with you. I mean it, Barbara, you're tops!!

Barbara, we've really got some wonderful times behind us and I know, before us. I'll never forget all the many many nights we sat at your house and listened to the records that reminded us of the "latest" we were in love with. Those were the days. I'll never forget all the afternoons and days riding in the "chevy" convertible.

Barbara, you've really given me some wonderful and sensible advice in all these years and even though I was awful hard-headed at times I can see now. I love you for it too.

Honey, I hope graduation won't do anything to our friendship unless it brings us closer. I want to tell you that no matter what you ^{over}

Dear "Lock," "Hot-lips," "blubber-hips,"

Well, another year is almost over, and we are still friends. I don't understand how but we are still are after last year's annual, I just don't understand!

Well, the stabs shall start flying. I like bow-legged women don't you? yea, I know it. Also, you are "double-jointed" ain't you? Na, ha, ha! Everytime I drink a limeade I think of you, isn't that sweet!

I hope your picture J. G. has ~~is~~ is dry by now. at least I keep your pictures on my dresser-drawers.

Really, I consider you my best friend. I have never had as much fun with anyone else. We have been through a lot together. I enjoyed every minute of it. I shall never forget it. You have done an awful lot for me and don't think I don't appreciate it. I hope our friendship can continue.

I wish you and J. G. all the luck in the world. When Bill comes ~~home~~ home, we will have to double-date. Remember the times we have had double-dates? Great fun!

Love,
Pat

Dear "Surtie" (C)

wee ~~haha~~, here we are at last in see Senior year! Sometimes I didn't think we would make it.

Barbara, we have really had some crazy times together - Remember Monday and meditation and down house and see our drag races!

"Surtie", you don't know how much fun I have when I'm with you!!
You are really and truly a wonderful gal with oodles of personality!

Sincerely, from the bottom of my heart, I want to wish you all the best and happiness in the world!

Dear Barbara,

I'm certainly going to miss our good times together next year when we're all away at college. We've had some balls this year. I'll never forget initiation at club - when you made me undress you and put your pajamas on. Boy, I worked hard on that one! Also having to kiss Clarence. Ugh, that boy was scared. Don't blame him. Can't wait to try some stunts on other people. I know how it feels. We've also had the times at lunch in the car, telling jokes, cutting people to ribbons, etc. You're always going to Carolina for a dance every time you turn around. Must be nice!! Ain't been lately. Remember the Citadel dance this Christmas?
We'll just forget about that one huh? Maybe someday certain people will forget your favorite nick name you hope. Don't forget club meetings and the spend-the-night parties. See you around the backstop and take care of L. B. always,

Love,
Francine

Barbara,
You're a swell
gal. Don't take anything I say as something bad or wrong. I really don't mean it. The best of everything,
Be good always,
Be seeing ya,

FOREWORD

For the past three years, we the Class of '52 have been working at Central High in preparation for our immediate adult life. For some it is a job, for others college, and for many marriage. With this 1952 SNIPS & CUTS, we shall be able to recall, during the hubbub of later life, the fun and hard work that went into three of our most enjoyable and busiest years. It is with the aim of bringing back to each student the action-packed life of C.H.S. that this volume of SNIPS & CUTS is published.

Barbara,

Best of luck always.

D E D I C A T I O N

We, the senior class, dedicate this, the 1952 SNIPS & CUTS, to a teacher who, throughout her long Central High career, has given up many things for the good of her students. Even though she is kept busy by her schoolwork and other Christian activities, she is always willing to add one more pupil to her already crowded classes. She is glad to listen to a student's problem and to try to counsel him wisely. Her teachings leave an everlasting impression on her students, many of whom seek and accept her advice. She is an inspiration to all who come into contact with her. When we think of a kind, hard-working, and unsung heroine who never seeks publicity for her good deeds, she stands at the head of our list. To Miss Janet Robinson, who, by her daily actions, is an excellent example for the subject she teaches, we dedicate this volume of SNIPS & CUTS.

Barbara,
It's been great being at Central with you these past years.
I have enjoyed them very much. I think you are one cute girl, and I really mean it. You are also a good dancer. I'll probably be up at Cardina next year so I'll see you there, whenever you come up to see J.L. Lots of luck to a swell girl.

Dear Barbara,
Well, how we have really had some good times together. I can't even begin to name them all. We really did have fun last summer when we started going around together and as time goes on we do more and more stupid things. Remember the spend the night party over at your house when I stayed up to watch the sun come up; the time you spent the night with me and we sat out in the middle of the street; going to the river with the "crew" and cutting the pool, etc. Gosh, there are so many I could sit here and list them all day.

Barbara, you and G. & are really a cute couple and I hope you and the "Blind Boy" get the best in life. I like both of you a lot and I hope we can date together some.

Boy, we'll have a ball down at the beach with G. & and up there. We can always have so much fun together.

I hope our friendship continues forever cause you are a friend I don't ever want to lose. Always keep that wonderful personality and cute way about you cause it couldn't be beat. You know how much I think of you and your friendship has really meant a lot to me. One reason I cherish your friendship is because you are so understanding and helpful when I tell you my problems.

OUR SENIOR YEAR AT "DEAR OLD C. H. S."

Don't worry
It has been "much fun" knowing you all these years but especially this year. You are just as cute as you could be and I hope you don't change. You and "C.J."
could have a great future together and I hope you continue to go together for a "long time." He's lucky to have such a catch! Remember me, 'cause
I won't forget you!

Dear Barbara, this looks like the end of our high school days, it's well, this looks like the end of our high school days, it's breaking my heart. It doesn't seem possible does it? Remember all the parties, times we've had, all those afternoons at the "Baw", that all night ball at your house. You know we really ought to thank J. G. for our friendship, after all it was his fault. He, has a way of bringing his old flames together. Barbara, I don't let it end here, that's one thing I hate about graduation, sometimes you never see certain people again. I'm going to do my best to see you next year & I want you to do the same. I'm sorry that we haven't been as good friends this year as we were last year, but you know how things change. Honey, I want to wish you all the happiness in the world. By the way I'm going to be awfully disappointed if in a full year your name isn't Mrs. J. G. Baw. Maybe the Baw's & Redds can get together & have a ball. Remember I love you - Peggy (I know you'd love your 50¢.)

Dear Barbara —

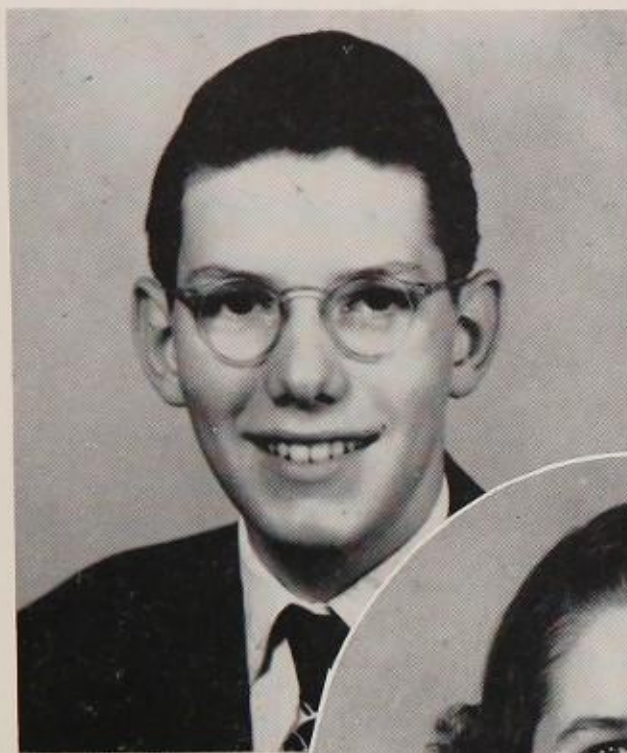

We've really had some frantic falls the past couple of years, haven't we? Honestly, I'll never forget that skidding we pitched out at the River this Christmas — "Somebody's done busted the hound out of my axle!" Remember that? Sweet little ole granny — We're going to throw some more like that this summer and have a big reunion Christmas. I'll never forget you telling me about the picture G. L. had of you at Caroline and where it finally landed. Also all those lunch periods with the cane and the jokes nobody ever caught on to at one time and would have to explain them to the innocent few. Really — You don't know what a kick we've gotten out of going around with you these years and I hope we continue to be as good friends in the years to come as we are now. See you this summer —

Dear Barbara,
Well, the last time to sign Annals. Remember all the balls we have had at your house, the Cloonies and everything. You are an awfully sweet girl and I hope you'll always have the best of everything.
You and G. H. are real cute together. I hope nothing ever comes between you two. (I like his name)
Please don't ever forget all our fun and our troubles too. Be real good next year and don't forget me. Don't change cause you are fine now. Really, I hope you always get what you want out of life.

SENIOR RING COMMITTEE

The 1952 Senior Ring Committee, under the leadership of Bill Dunkin and the faculty adviser, Miss Cornelia Fore, completed a successful year by selling and delivering over three hundred rings.

Two separate orders were made for the '52 rings. The first order was received in the fall; the second, in the spring.

The 1952 ring is made of ten-carat gold and has a blue stone. Circumscribed around the stone are the words—Central High School, Charlotte, N. C. On one side of the stone is a picture of Central, and on the other, a wildcat. The Senior's initials are engraved inside the ring.

The members of this year's Senior Ring Committee were David Armstrong, Dan Burroughs, Jack Crymes, Jane Emery, Richard Haywood, Micky Kimbrell, Becky Shiver, and Bill Dunkin, chairman.

Dear Barbara,
 Is this the 5th or 6th annual I've signed of yours?
 It should have been fun going around you all these years.
 I don't think we could even begin to think of all the things and trouble we've gotten ourselves into. You sure ~~do~~ have a wonderful art of putting on a false front, especially under certain conditions I guess we all have to sometimes such all trouble we get ourselves into.
 Remember all the times we've dated together, Bay what fun! What about the party at the river!! When Remember that sandwich night party you had that time. (13 girls) ?? Remember new years eve?? "Rock"
 I even begin or put on paper all the things we've done together. Seriously, though, you are a wonderful person and one of the finest friends anyone could have.
 you are fun and a wonderful sport, (you crazy thing)
 I don't want our friendship to ever end cause I don't think it would ever be the same without good old "Rock" we are really gonna' through some balls next year and this summer (when I ~~do~~ hate to think!) "Rock", I can't put on paper all I'd like to say to you but you know how I feel. I hope you and Baba have all kinds of luck and happiness cause both of you really deserve it.
 Now Barbara - - - I didn't stab you did I ???
 Remember that when you are writing in my annual, you be good now. Love ya' always.

CENTRAL 6-TECH 0

After losing practically all of their 1950 powerhouse team, Central was expected by everyone to be very green and in this their opening game, they were found lacking in many departments.

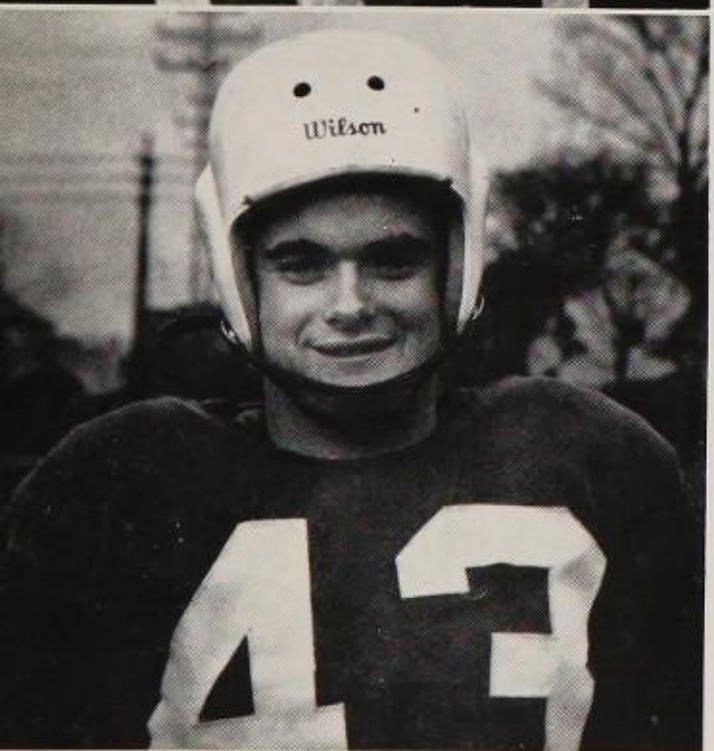

An early fumble in the first quarter set Central in a big hole and left Tech knocking on their five yard line, but a spirited defensive stand kept Tech from scoring on fourth down. The rest of the first half was slow with both teams trying to find themselves.

In the fading minutes of the third quarter, the Wildcats started a drive on the Tech 46-yard line, which later developed into the lone and winning touchdown of the game. Tony Frantz, Dickie Mattison, and Richard Hinson sparked the drive with Hinson bulling his way over from the four for the tally.

CENTRAL 0-DURHAM 30

With the aid of four unearned touchdowns, due to Central fumbles, the Durham Bulldogs had an easy night disposing of the uncertain Central Wildcats. Central's only threat came late in the game when a penalty against Durham set the ball back on the Bulldog three yard line and gave Central a golden scoring opportunity, but a bad pass from center and a fumble at this point ended the threat.

Although Central netted only 46 yards rushing, there were still several standouts in the line including Oliver Garner and Bobby Redd who both played excellent games. Tom Hayes and Bobby Gunn also played good games in the backfield.

CENTRAL 0-ROCKY MOUNT 42

At the hands of a speedy, deceptive Rocky Mount eleven, the still green Wildcats suffered their worst defeat since 1943. In the early minutes of play the visitors capitalized on a blocked Central punt for their first touchdown.

Later in the game Central tried desperately to pull themselves together behind the passing of quarterback Tom Hayes and the running of Bobby Gunn and Richard Hinson, but they could make no headway against Rocky Mount's alert defensive unit.

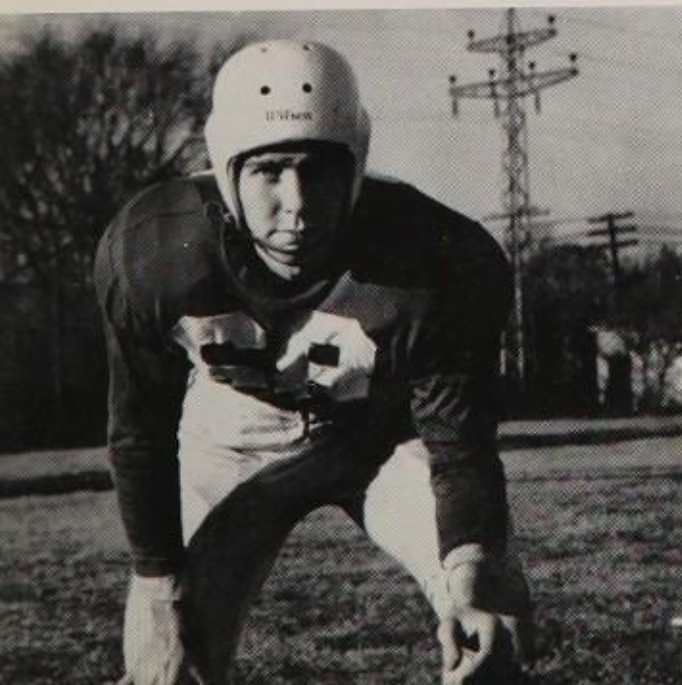

Statistics later showed Rocky Mount the superior team in every department as they rolled up a final score of 42-0.

CENTRAL 0-BALTIMORE 13

In a driving rain a powerful Baltimore eleven ran their first scrimmage play 63 yards to score against the scrappy Wildcats. From that point until midway of the last quarter, it was give and take, with both teams having offensive difficulties due to the mud. Then Baltimore took a bad punt on the Central 21-yard line and drove to the tally. In the final minutes of the game, the Cats blocked a scoring threat which ended on their 3-yard line, holding the Maryland State Champs to a 13-0 win.

Central's hitherto shaky defense was much more effective, and Dicky Mattison sparked the offense, leading several scoring threats. Coach Sparger's sensational new punting discovery, Lee Kerlin, also performed well, kicking effectively some ten times.

CENTRAL 14-GREENSBORO 7

Paying no attention to an early seven-point lead taken by Greensboro, Central proved they were out to win this one. Taking nothing and giving all they had, the 'Cats showed a spirit hereto unequalled.

With Bobby Gunn's brilliant running and pass receiving and Dickie Mattison tearing up the Greensboro defensive line, the teams retired at half time in a 7-7 deadlock.

It was Gunn again in the second half, who sparked the team and personally scored the winning touchdown. This game finally put Central back in the win column after losing three previous games.

CENTRAL 7-SALISBURY 14

A frank "circus catch" in the last twenty seconds of play in the first half gave Boyden High a 14 point lead which Central never managed to equal.

In the third quarter the combination of Hayes, Mattison, and Frantz led a Central drive to its lone score of the ball game. Frantz scored the touchdown on an off-tackle play and the score stood at 14-7.

Still playing their hearts out, the Wildcats drove the ball down to the Boyden 15-yard line in the last five minutes of the game. At this point Central called four straight passing plays, all of which failed to connect, and that was all for Central, as time again ran out.

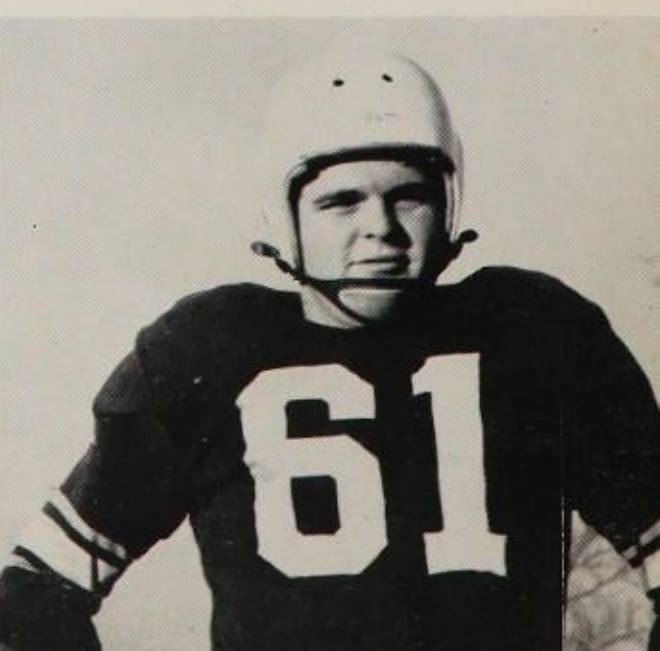

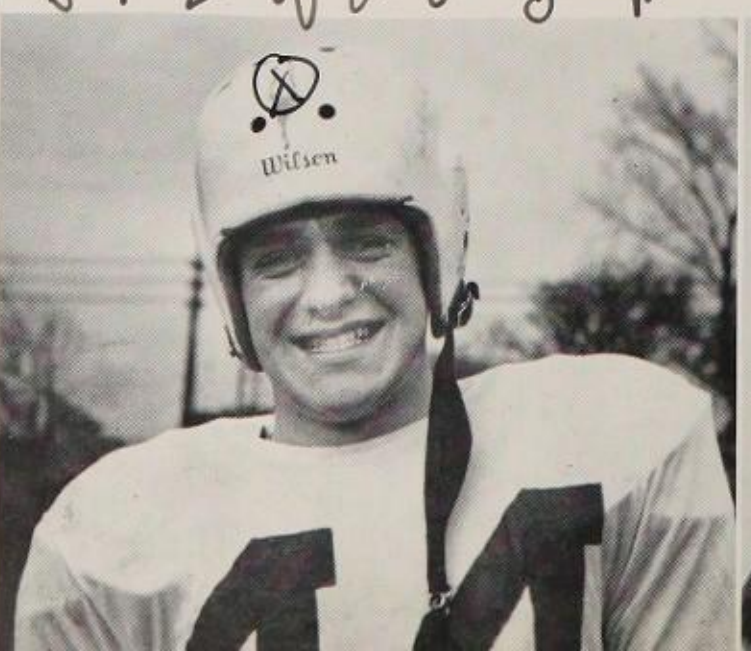

BRAD HORN, Guard

CENTRAL 18-HIGH POINT 13

The spectators at this game had little hope for Central after the first ten minutes of play. With High Point scoring on two spectacular plays covering 89 and 78 yards respectively and setting Central back by two touchdowns, the outlook seemed dark. In one of the wildest second quarters ever played in Memorial Stadium, however, the spirited Wildcat eleven ran over three successive touchdowns to take the lead.

Content to leave things as they stood, Central decided to play a defensive game the second half as they stopped the High Pointer from scoring again. The rest of the game went scoreless.

The backfield standouts in Central's great comeback included Dickie Mattison, who scored twice, and Tony Frantz, who scored the vital winning touchdown.

CENTRAL 0-BURLINGTON 7

With nine minutes left to play in the game, a freak pass play which covered more than fifty yards gave Burlington a shaky 7-0 win over Central. The Wildcats made their most serious threat in the opening minutes of the game when they drove to the Burlington eight-yard line; but hindered by a wet slippery field and a spirited goal line stand by Burlington, they were unable to go any farther.

It was again the combination of Frantz, Hayes, and Mattison that sparked Central's offensive play. Much credit is also due the Wildcat forward wall, which prevented Burlington from scoring on the ground. Standouts here included Bobby Redd and Bill Flake, who made many tackles throughout the evening.

CENTRAL 7-WINSTON-SALEM 0

Using a three man line and playing inspired football, the Central Wildcats pulled one of the biggest upsets in conference history, as they beat highly favored Reynolds High of Winston-Salem.

Completely baffling their opponents with a special defense set up by Coach George Sparger, the Central line played brilliantly as it held the powerful Reynolds offense scoreless for the entire game. The big chance came for Central in the last period, and they didn't fail to make good on it. A pass taken by Bill Calvert on the Reynolds 27-yard line was followed by two running plays, which carried the ball down to the 15-yard line and put Central in a scoring position. From here Dickie Mattison skirted end for the remaining yardage and the winning touchdown.

CENTRAL 13-HARDING 0

A warm Thanksgiving afternoon and a large cheering crowd saw Central win its sweetest victory of the year, as their cross-town rival, Harding High, went down in defeat, 13-0.

Both teams, playing brilliant defensive football in the first half, failed to score. About midway of the third period, Harding almost took the lead, but a fumble, deep in Central territory, cost them dearly. Central finally took the lead toward the end of the period when Tom Hayes passed to Joe Townsend in the end zone for the touchdown. The Wildcats then added another in the last period, while all the Harding efforts proved fruitless, and ended the season with a well-earned victory.

1952 SEASON

The Central basketball team of 1952 was highly rated in pre-season speculation, and despite the fact that they had much to live up to, they came through with flying colors. Under the able leadership of Coach Stan Cropley, plus the outstanding performances of three all-city selections, Hobby Cobb, Bill Hanks, and Dick Adams, the Wildcats finished second in the state AAA conference and advanced as far as the semi-finals in the state high school tournament at Durham.

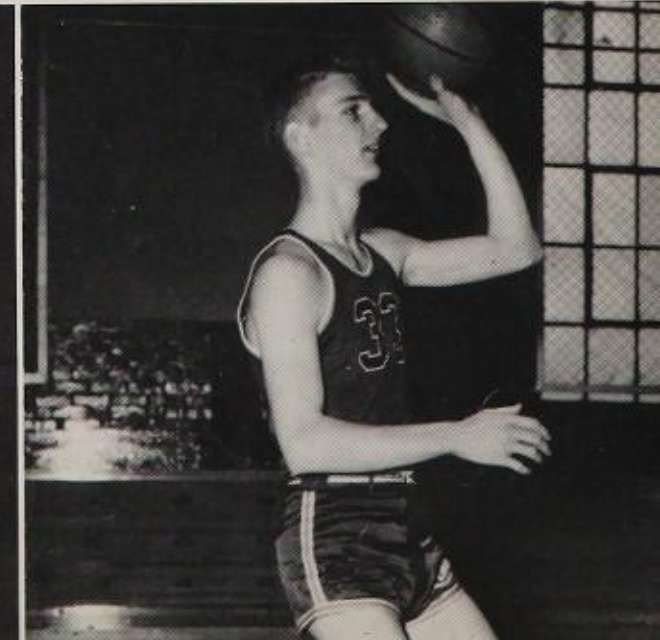

The 'Cats opened the season in mid-December by trouncing their latest crosstown rival, Myers Park, 84-26. They then took the next seven straight before journeying to Greensboro and losing a close one to the state champs, Greensboro High. After this loss Central took eight of their remaining ten games to insure themselves a bid to the state tournament and to bring down second place in the conference, the climax of the season being the next to last home game when they evened the score with Greensboro by a 49-43 margin.

In the state tournament, played at the indoor stadium at Duke University, Central showed unusual speed and deception as they took the opening game from a highly rated Durham Bulldog quintet, 48-40. In the semi-final tilt with Raleigh, Central was ahead most of the way, but a last minute spurt by Raleigh shaded the Wildcats 56-50, thus ending an outstanding season of basketball for Central.

Leading the Wildcats in scoring this season was center Hobby Cobb with a 15 point average per game and 271 total points for the season, and closely followed by center Bill Hanks with a 11 point average per game. Other players carrying outstanding loads were Dick Adams, Eric Jonas, Eddie Bernstein, and Garland Thomas.

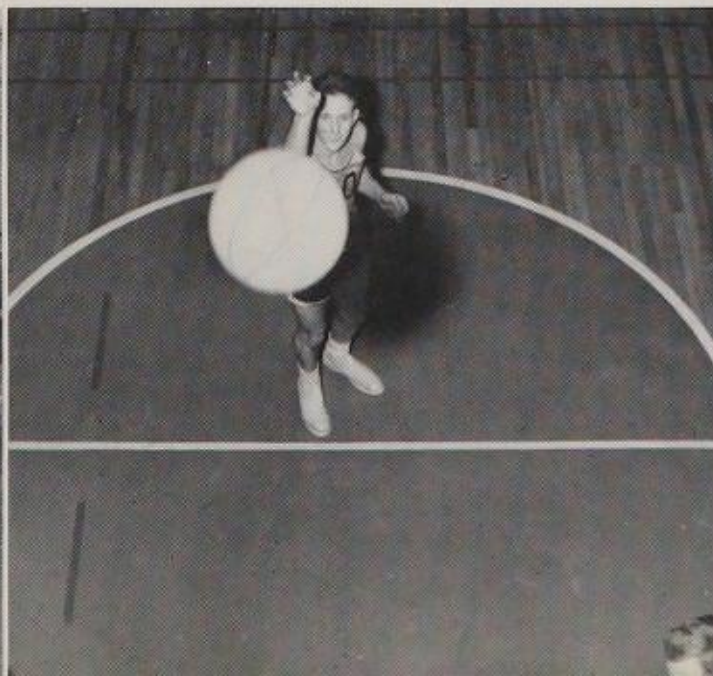

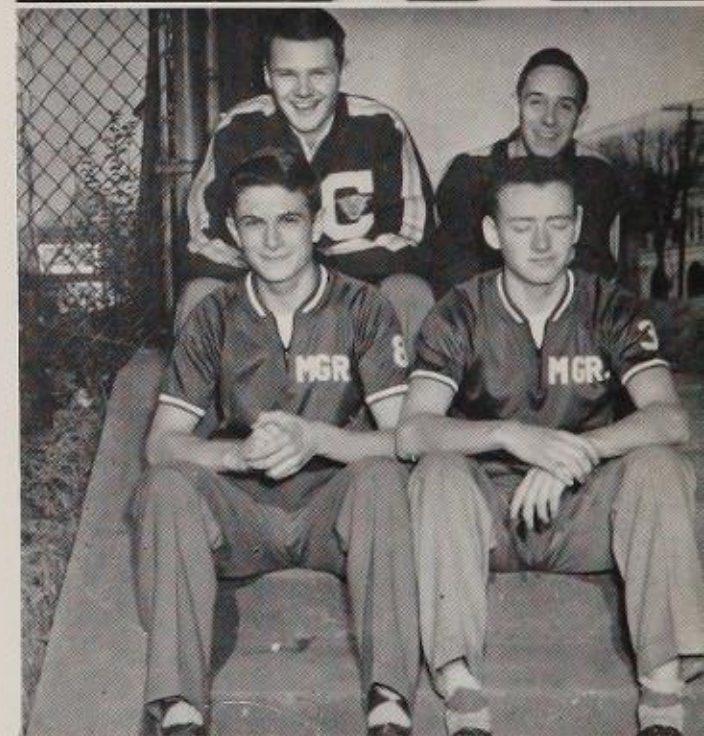

The attendance at home games also increased during the past season. The gymnasium was completely renovated, and an entirely new seating arrangement was set up with the seats individually numbered. Also temporary bleachers were added on the far side of the gym to accommodate the large crowds. For the official opening the students held a huge pep rally which was followed by several more during the season. The estimated attendance for home games was between four and five hundred, and the over-all student support reached a new all-time high.

GOLF TEAM

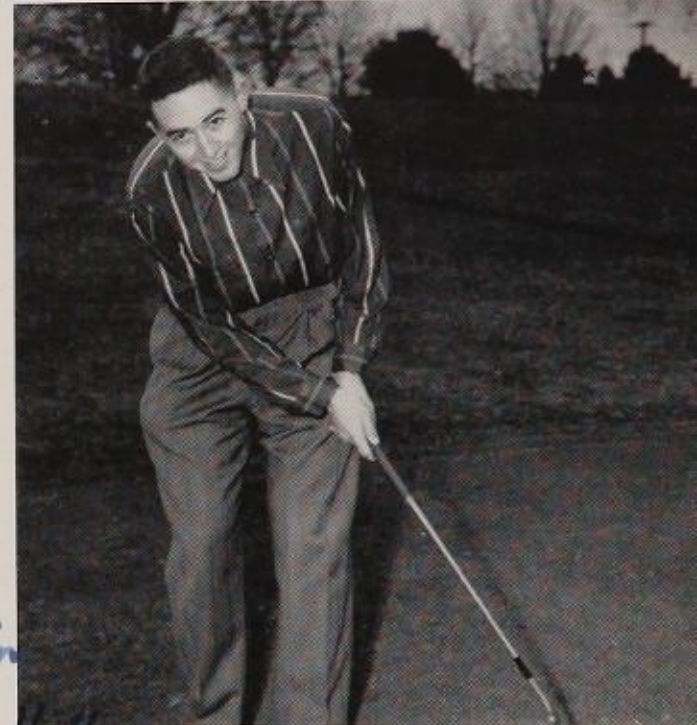

With a tough schedule and competition getting tougher every year, Central's 1952 golf team will have a big job on their hands. Tentative matches so far include Greensboro, Salisbury, Spartanburg, and Greenville, all of which are loaded with prep talent.

Heading Central's team this year will be Bobby Sisk who has been considered the state's outstanding high school star for the past several years. Bobby has held many titles including the North and South Carolina State High School Championship, which is played annually at Greenville, S. C.

Also there's long-hitting Eric Jonas, who thinks nothing of breaking par and Carter Terrell, who was runner-up last summer for the North Carolina boy's championship. Rounding out the first four will probably be Hobby Cobb, a newcomer to the team, who has a fine state and local record. The second team will include Bob Dillard, Cal Mitchell, Larry Parrott, and Charles Furman. Each of these also have good records and can be counted on to shoot good golf.

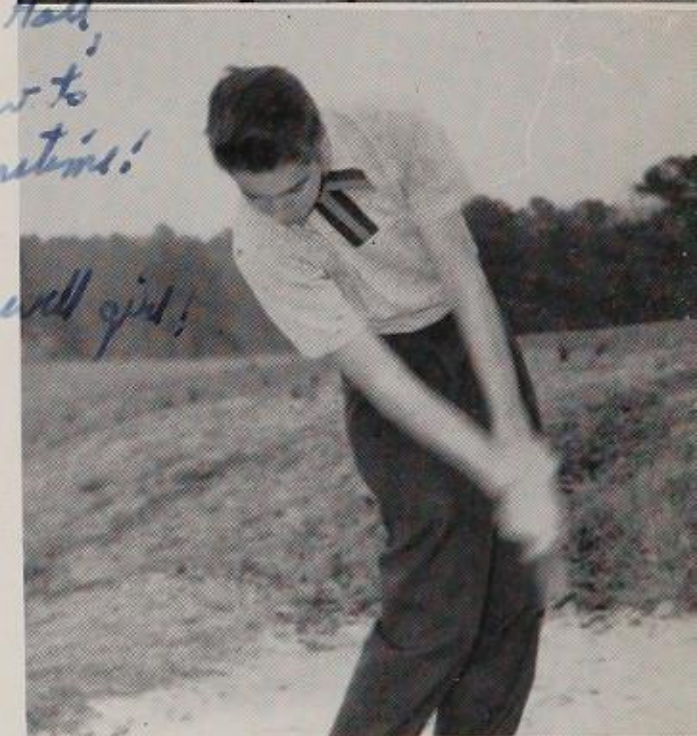

The entire team is expected to open the season at Greenville in early April where they will compete for North and South Carolina state team honors. Central has finished first in this event in previous years and will probably be a hard team to beat again.

TRACK TEAM

Central's track team opened the 1952 season by showing well in the indoor meet at Chapel Hill, March 1st. Prospects were promising, particularly on the track side, for the thirty-man squad ably led by Coaches Leslie Outterson, and Bill Ball and managed by Mike Edwards. Fourteen members of last year's championship squad returned, but the outstanding performances of the three H's—Hudson, Huffaker, and Hovis—will be greatly missed. Returning were Co-Captains Desmond Marsh, outstanding sprinter, and Bill Logan, expected to retain his state pole vault title. Much was expected also from Archie Joyner, Richard Massey, Ed Fuller, Dick Prather, Bill Calvert, and many others.

The team had an admirable record to live up to, having sustained no defeats on the home track since 1948, and having placed second in the state meets in 1947 and 1951. They were also last year's Western Conference champs, and ran up a record of 565 1/12 points.

Meets with Anderson, S. C., Spartanburg, S. C., and Rock Hill, S. C., were on the regular schedule, but the meet with Durham here on April 23 (our first since 1948) was expected to be the high point of the season.

TENNIS TEAM

With one returning letter man, Coach George Sawyer will have to mold his team from a flock of newcomers. Tommy Holder will play the number one position, and will carry most of Central's hopes for victory. Other good prospects include Carter Cook, Mercer Blankenship, and Richard Angstadt.

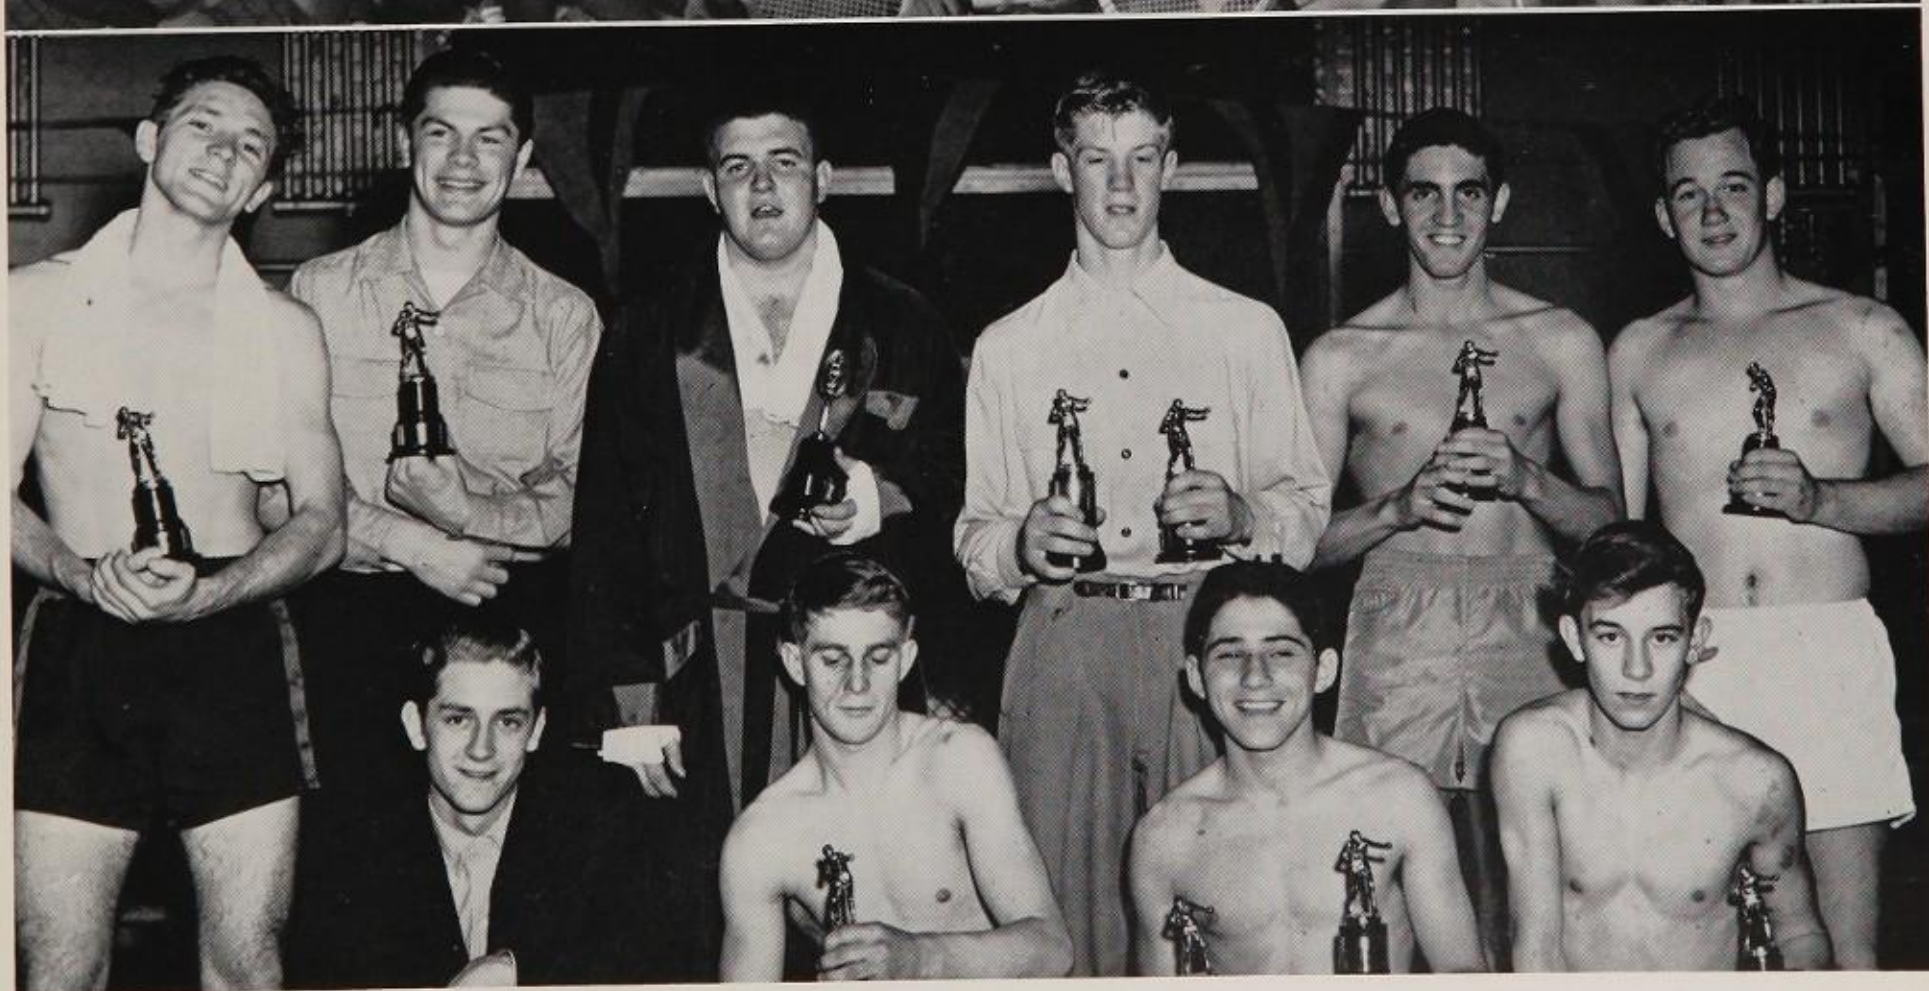

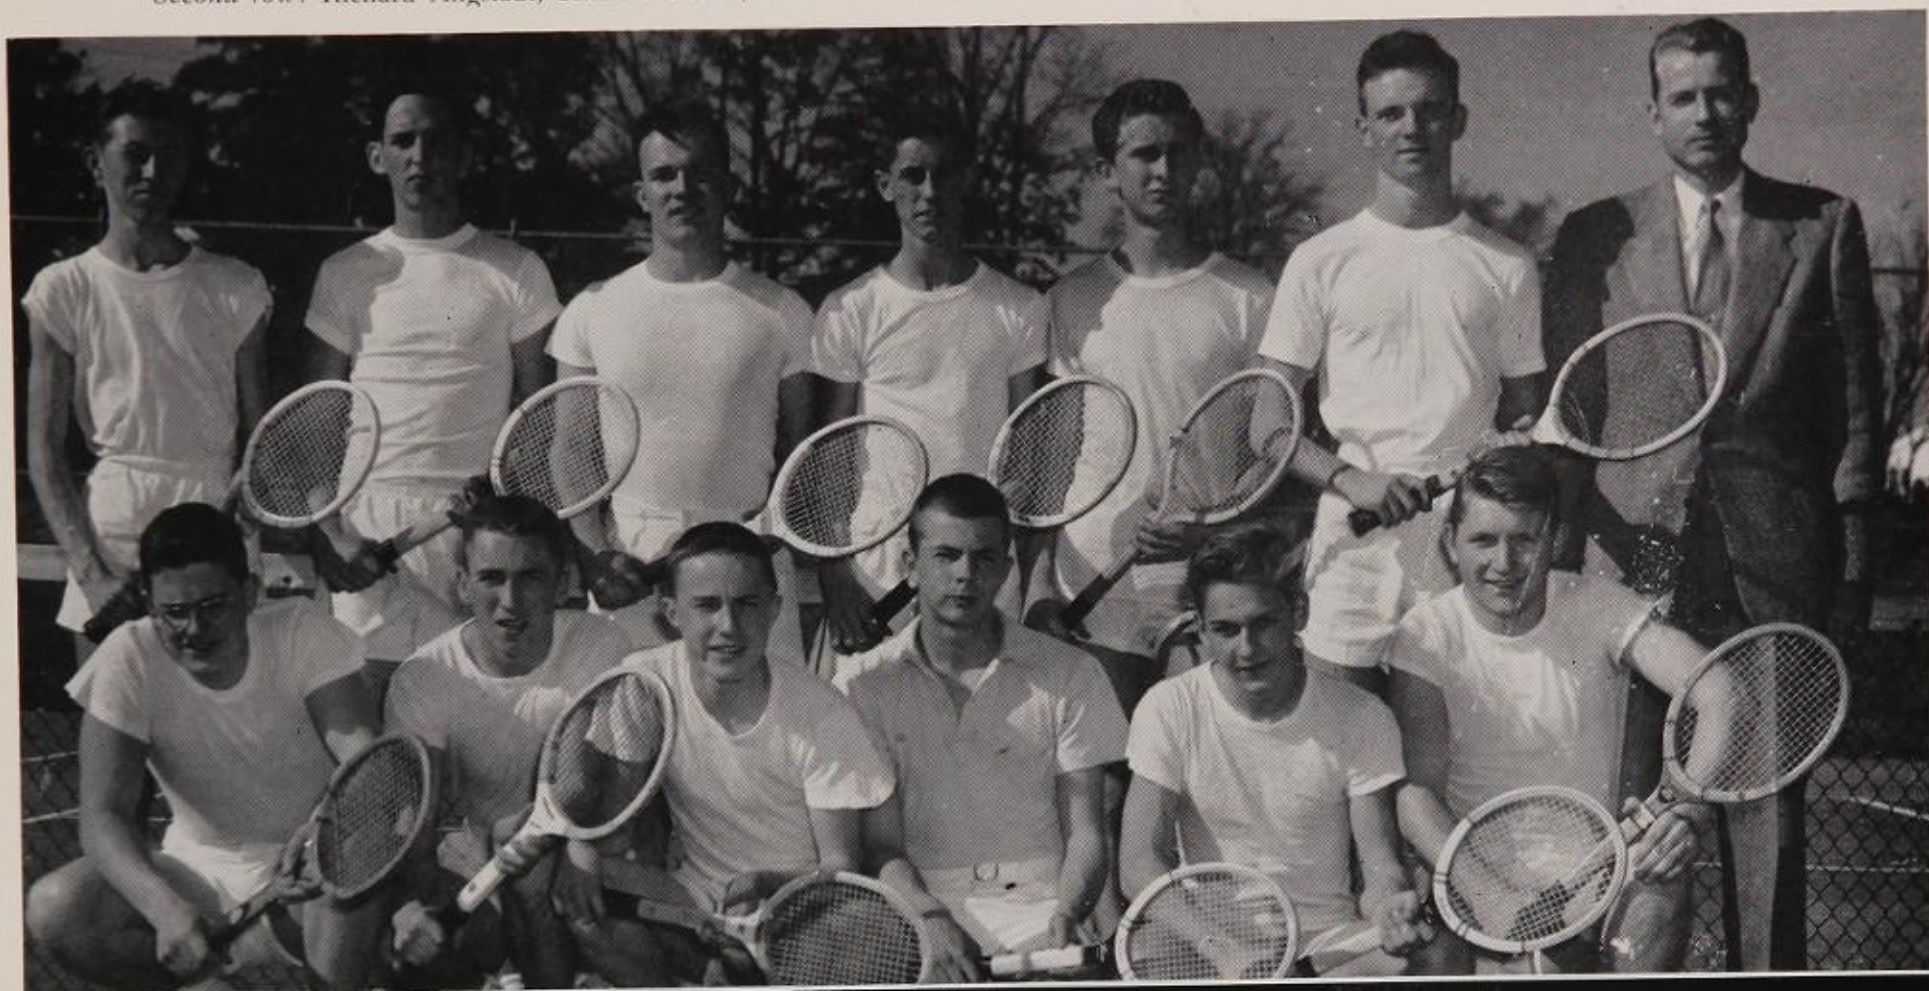

Some of the most difficult matches will include games with Greensboro, Winston-Salem, and North High. Christ School and Burlington are also tentatively scheduled.

Coach Sawyer hopes with enough practice and hard work to regain the State Singles and Doubles Titles which we lost last year to Goldsboro. The Wildcats have held a State Title for three out of the four years.

GOALS

Some say that schools have but one goal,
A purpose all can see;
That to the portals of success
Knowledge is the key.

But if you make a stranger feel
That he has found a friend,
Convince him of your loyalty
On which he can depend—

You've found another purpose then,
A goal to reach at school.
The art of making worthy friends
Cannot be learned by rule.

Just to wear a big, bright smile
Doesn't take all A's.
You'd be surprised how much they mean,
Those warm "Hello's" and "Hey's."

So be as cheerful as you can;
Smile your biggest smile.
Learn to work with others—and Walk that extra mile.

Do your very best each day
To acquire knowledge,
For what you learn will someday serve
In business or in college.

Goals of schools are numerous;
The principles, well-founded.
If you attain but few of them,
Your character's well-rounded.

PROPHECY

You know, the other day I chanced to be talking with a chemist friend of mine, and having mentioned to him my desire to venture into the future, he told me of a fellow known as Old Man Nose, who had discovered a type of incense, which, when burned, would produce the desired experience.

I proceeded immediately to Old Man Nose's secret laboratory, and after following certain instructions I was put to sleep, and my brain sent reeling twenty years into the future.

My first vision was of three figures whom I soon recognized as Al Ansley, Dick Nixon, and Lloyd Walter. The fellows looked swell, even if they were barefooted. They always were terrific shoe salesmen.

Next a race track came into view. The list of riders revealed some familiar names. It seems that Betty Lee Rogers, Joan Palmer, and Pat Riley have broken into the pro ranks and won the first three races. Beth Nuckolls is giving the girls a hard fight for top money winnings of the year.

Donald Knell out-rote Erastus Doughton to win the fifth race. Erastus was picked to win, but he was small that his horse, thinking that he had lost his rider, stopped half way around and went up in the stands to watch the rest of the race.

Leaving the track, I picked up a newspaper at a newsstand run by Bob Dillard and Ted Kemp. They boasted the most complete collection of comic books in the world. The first article to catch my eye was one concerning a wild jungle-bunny hunt to South Africa, being conducted by Charles Furman, Dick Adams, Willie Alexander, and Thorny Guthery. The boys were equipped with fine sling-shots and butterfly nets, and expected profitable results.

Turning the page, I noticed a theater billing featuring the comedy team of Minogue and Overman, the nineteen seventy-two versions of Martin and Lewis. They were making quite a hit.

Eddie Bernstein and Dick Barnhardt were also on the bill as a black face vaudeville team. According to the reviews, their act had gone from bad to worse, and the boys weren't eating too well. They were getting awfully thin, and the act was about to fold. One night during a tap dance number, Eddie's pants fell down, displaying his long red flannels. The crowd went wild and so did Eddie.

Glancing over the rest of the paper, I noticed many interesting items and advertisements . . . one ad in particular for an organization known as the C.H.J.C.E.D.F.B.P.A.I. Reading on, I discovered that it was the Cobb, Hanks, and Jonas Clinic for the Encouragement and Development of Future Basketball Players of America Incorporated. Those boys just can't stand to give up the game.

Another ad dealt with the Whatcha Hurry Dance Studio, with Harry Brownlee and Gloria Miller billed as the instructors.

The names of quite a few old friends turned up in other articles such as the admittance of Gene Holston and Bobby Foote to the nationally famous Fat Boys Club, and the retirement of Bob Gunn, Richard Hinson and Henry Boyd from five successful years of pro football.

I cast my paper aside as a large building, an arena, came into view. It was Monday night, and the wrestling matches were about to begin. The guest of the evening, a famous opera star whom I recognized as Gwynn Moose, had just sung the National Anthem, and the main event was about to begin. It featured a tag-team match with "Earth Quake" Harris and Don "Killer" Connell against Bill "Curly" Calvert and "Man-Mountain" Kennerly. I got near the ring and asked one of the seconds why there was no canvas on the ring. He replied that the last time these fellows fought it was so rough and so long, they got hungry and ate it. I handed him my roll of "tums" and left.

At this moment, however, my time was up; and after awakening and paying my respects to the old man, I started out the door. Half way out, I bumped into my friend, Yulan Washburn, who had just gotten wind of the secret laboratory (it was located in a horse barn) and followed his nose to the spot. After a word or two, I headed for home, wondering what strange sights he would see.

Yulan Washburn, the noted, outstanding, superlative journalist, immediately entered the barn to confer with Ol' Man Nose.¹ He was disappointed, for Lawing had smelled up everything in the place, and the only scent left wasn't fit to use.² As Washburn³ turned to leave the place, his attention was arrested by a paper. It was something Lawing had pilfered while in the future. It was an article from the January issue of Life Magazine, then owned and published by Al Moreau, and written by the great columnist, Bill Wortman. It summed up the happenings of the past year, 1981. It read:

"Senator Joanne Duckworth's Investigation Committee made headlines in its efforts to delve into corruption and crime in America. It brought up for questioning such arch-criminals as Sue Deaton, nationally known bookie; Robert Litaker, alleged fix-man of basketball games; and Jerry Morris, suspected head of an international crime machine known as the "Syndicate." Also brought up were several athletes, Des Marsh, Don Lyerly, and Louis Nathanson, convicted of slicing points in tiddly-winks matches. Then the public got a glimpse of mystery man Larry Mayfield, whose gun-moll wife, Mona Irvin, has six mink coats.⁴

"In the sporting world, the University of North Carolina,⁵ under Coach F. P. Wright, was named top football team in the nation,⁶ while Coach Dick Prather was tagged as coach of the year. The sports world saw its sensations too, when the Bradley team, led by Captain Willie Spong, who seems somehow to have escaped the four-year ruling, came onto the court with a kangaroo as center. Commissioner of Athletics Archie Tsangarides⁷ maintained it was legal,⁸ since the kangaroo was taking a course in agriculture.⁹

"A sensational murder case¹⁰ gained headlines for detectives Mike Soper and Carl Williams. They arrived at a rooming house in the slums to find a man who had been poisoned, stabbed, shot, and strangled.¹¹ With the help of F.B.I. Chief John Seidenstricker, the murder was solved.¹²

"A list of the top income tax payers in the year revealed that Carol Smith¹³ was the top earner, netting for himself over twelve million dollars ($540.22 after taxes¹⁴). Van Trapp also made a pile¹⁵ for himself by going West, becoming the foreman on C. W. Brown's schmoo ranch, and throwing a long rope to rustle himself a herd of schmoos. Sheriffess Nancy Broome tried to nab him, but when she couldn't, she married him."¹⁶

From across the water, news was received from the country of Xzygrophytez¹⁷ that Doris Gribble and Nancy Carpenter had been exiled for trying to institute a branch service of Alcoholics Anonymous.¹⁸ Micky Kimbrell's recipe for roast chinchilla¹⁹ won first place in Arthur Godfrey's cooking contest. Betty Zeigler bedecked in a bathing suit with a French accent, walked away with high honors²⁰ before some fifty judges.

Broadway saw the opening of several bright new hits, but the biggest crowd-pleaser was a play written by the team of Dickie Calvin and Dickie Jordan. It was entitled "Hamlet." It starred Jimmy Turner in the title role, Phyllis Bolick in the female lead, and members of the all-star cast included Dolly Brock, as Polonius,²¹ Peggy Ballard, as the Queen, and Carter Cook as the man who pulled down the curtain. Also in the news were "Gopher" and "Mouse" Parrott.²² We won't say for what.

Suddenly things grew light again, and I stood in reality with Ol' Man Nose. Oh, nuts, I'm tired of prophesying, and I can't think of a witty way to end this thing, so I'll just quit.²³

HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF 1952

"So you went to Central High School!" my travelling companion exclaimed, noticing the senior ring on my finger. "I lived in North Carolina, and back in those days we used to hear a lot about Central. It must have been a wonderful school."

"You're asking for it, stranger," I replied. "You had better settle back in that deck chair and relax, because I can talk about Central from now until we reach our destination." Removing my ring and handing it to him to examine, I said, "That engraving of the front of the building really brings back memories. And those traditional weeping willow trees characterized Central in my mind even before I went there. That hallowed institution always overstepped with laughing, chattering students has a place of its own in the hearts of all its graduates." Then, forgetting my listener and losing myself in reverie, I continued.

In September 1949 about four hundred of us trembling, frightened creatures, the upperclassmen scornfully labeled "Sophs," hit Central. The characters standing around in front of the Maid across the street nearly scared some of us back to Piedmont and A.G. But what would we have done that first day without those older Centralites who helped us find our way when we got lost going from locker room to home room? Realizing that we were here to stay, they finally accepted our presence; we stuck it out and before long began to like it. We elected Mark Johnson, Tony Frantz, David Shaw and Joe Townsend to be our first semester sophomore class officers. The second half of the year Dick Barnhardt, Bill Calvert, Claire Flintom, and Nancy Carpenter were chosen to be our leaders. In the middle of the year Student Council elections came up and Walter Propst, Patricia Moeller, George Robinson, and Sylvia Davis replaced Tommy Dulin, Ann Ritch, Danny Michaels, and Slug Claiborne in office.

That was the year of the first international football game when we entertained our Latin American friends from down Mexico way. The Spanish students made practical use of their knowledge, while the advantages and disadvantages of football and bullfighting were discussed. Then came the Womanless Wedding in which Hank Kistler said "I do" to Erastus Doughton, and a score or more boys nobly sacrificed their masculine pride to become Hank's bridesmaids. In the Variety Show much hidden Central talent was unearthed, and much money was made for the Student Council. Our sides still ache from the laughter and hilarity which prevailed at the student faculty basketball game. None of us will ever forget Miss Markham in her long bloomer shorts and middy blouse, ball under arm, dashing down the basketball court and accidentally scoring for the faculty team!

Then we were juniors! How proud we all felt as we looked at a new batch of eager sophomores and thought of our advanced age and experience. Miss MacManus elevated our egos considerably by inserting into her many lectures the pleasant phrase, "Now Juniors!" We elected as president, Eric Jonas, then Hobby Cobb to guide us through two semesters. Other junior class officers were Nancy Carpenter, Sylvia Davis, Bobby Redd, Claire Flintom, and Joan Purser.

That year the Student Council found a new way to increase its funds. The gym and basement rooms were converted into hundreds of exciting booths, and all Central went to the carnival. There were shooting galleries, fortune tellers, hot dog stands, and laughs for all.

The Dramatics Club, with apologies to Mr. Shakespeare, presented a modern version of Julius Caesar. Instead of stabbing the mighty Emperor, Brutus pulled out his pistol and filled him full of lead! "Et tu, Brute?"

Mary Bradley was chairman of a committee organized to fight dishonesty at Central. There were discussions, special assemblies, and home room devotionals which combined in the effort to promote honesty on the part of the students. We faced the realization that we were obligated to ourselves, our fellow students, and to God to be honest.

That year the Christmas assembly presented by the advanced Bible class was one of Central's best. It made us want to celebrate Christmas in the right way. This group also presented outstanding assemblies of a spiritual nature at Thanksgiving and Easter.

Danny Michaels, Tom Shaw, Flowe Rodgers, and Dick Barnhardt were first semester Student Council officers; and, after mid-year elections, Slug Claiborne, Pat Alford, Sylvia Davis, and Lacy Keesler took their places.

The years were passing faster and faster. We suddenly found ourselves with rings on our fingers and college plans in our heads—Seniors! Modern fluorescent lighting was installed, and the gymnasium underwent a complete rehabilitation. Some members of our class had left Central for Myers Park, the new high school. Mr. Anderson replaced Mr. Horner as assistant principal.

Yulan Washburn and staff worked frantically all year to get the Rambler into our hands on time. Likewise the SNIPS AND CUTS staff with Al Moreau as editor labored diligently to give us a good senior annual.

No one seemed at all surprised that Mike Soper won the "I Speak for Democracy" contest, or that Betty Barrett was elected homecoming queen. Claire Flintom was chosen "Miss Hi Miss," and Sylvia Davis represented Central in the Christmas parade. Then Dick Prather and Peggy Davis were chosen Mr. and Miss Central. We chose Nelson Thomas and Eileen Dunn to be senior class mascots. The Dramatics Club presented "Night Must Fall," and that unique production, "The Male Animal," starring our principal, Mr. John Otts, and several other Central professors. The actors were coached by Mr. Hardin, who took Mr. Golby's place. The piano used at the Snow Ball was financed by money obtained from an all-school coat hanger sale.

Again the Honesty Committee, this time with Sylvia Davis as chairman, waged a battle against dishonesty. The plan of attack was much the same as that of the previous year. A very fine Thanksgiving assembly was presented by the Bible Club and Bible classes with the purpose of lifting the students' hearts to God at that season. At Christmastime a beautiful concert and a community sing were sponsored by the mixed chorus under the direction of Mrs. Overton.

We really began to feel like seniors on College Day when representatives from some fifty colleges came and set up information centers in the library. Members of the Honor Society ushered us through that hectic day. A senior counselling plan was organized to help us meet the multitude of problems which naturally accompany the rank of senior.

Senior class officers were Carter Terrell, Bobbie Minogue, Peggy Ballard, and Melissa Hood. The Student Council flourished first semester under the leadership of Dick Barnhardt, Bobby Redd, Lee Kerlin, and Sammy Williams. After a tussle among the "Dixiecats," "Dogpatters," and "Nondiscombobulationists," second semester officers were Hobby Cobb, Letty Hill, Buck Griffin, and Penny Smith.

That Wildcat on the other side of the ring brings to mind Central's keen athletic consciousness and her school spirit. Football was our major concern, and we felt we had done our best as long as we beat Harding, our cross-town rival, and Reynolds in Winston Salem. The ratio of wins to losses in 1949 was nine to two with two ties; in 1950 it was ten to one with one tie. Those were the years the Wildcat team led by All Star Larry Parker, was mightiest. In our senior year the ball team started out on the down beat. We just couldn't score. But with a great increase in school spirit and some superior coaching by Mr. George Sparger and Mr. Bill Ball, we pulled through with six wins and six losses. The Wildcats offer three arguments to anyone who challenges that they had a good football year: (1) Their quick recovery from defeats and terrific improvement in the last part of the season, (2) Their victory over our rival Reynolds and the unbeaten High Point team, and (3) The splendid performance on Thanksgiving Day when they surprised the Harding Rams with a score of 13-0, Central's favor. In 1949 Paul Brantley was star of the basketball team, which suffered eleven losses to nine wins. Mr. George Sparger coached the team in 1951, and with Buddy Brown scoring for the Cats, the record read thirteen wins, ten losses. There was a member of our class on the team that year who played superior ball. In our senior year Hobby Cobb, along with other speed demons such as: Bill Hanks, Bruce Martin, Eddie Bernstein, and Sammy Williams constituted a real threat to every opposing team. Mr. Stan Cropley was back at the coaching position. Typical scores read: Central 84, Myers Park 26; Central 80, Harding 50. We had a team nobody could beat! The golf team, the tennis team under Coach George Sawyer, and the track team under Coach Leslie Outtersen all exhibited outstanding sportsmanship.

Then those words engraved around the blue stone in the ring—"Central High School, Charlotte, N. C."—will always stir something inside of me, because Central has a way of getting into one's blood. It makes you remember so many little things, such as—the chattering crowd under the clock in the front hall before school and the chant of "Beat Greensboro" that echoed through the building. There were times when we felt like sardines in the locker rooms, and the fire drills always came in the coldest weather. You should have been there at election times to hear the noisy campaigns and see the crazy posters. There were always ticket sales; tickets for plays, variety shows, athletic events. No one will ever forget the mad rush for the cafeteria at lunchtime, the friendly greetings of friends passed in the halls, the teachers who pleaded for "quiet" in study halls, or the truckload of singing Bible Clubbers leaving for a week-end retreat. The 209 detention hall for people who slept through the alarm clock, the welcoming sound of the 3:05 bell, and the very atmosphere and spirit of the school we love has been impressed indelibly upon our hearts.

Those were good years of our lives—years of hard work and much play, years alive with precious friendships and many memories. Yes, those three golden years are history now, but they are a living history we shall never, never forget.

LETTY HILL, Historian

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE SENIOR CLASS

We, the greatest senior class in the history of our beloved Alma Mater, having successfully survived twelve long, strenuous years of books, lectures, and speeches and still claiming that we are of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath some of our great talents, brains, personalities, and other things that made our class a memorable one, to all our predecessors and underclassmen.

For the above reason, on this day of January the first in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-two, we do solemnly publish and declare this document as our last will and testament.

ARTICLE ONE—FACULTY

To Mr. John Otts, our efficient principal, we are greatly indebted for his kind guidance, school spirit, and for proving the fact that principals like to have fun also. We shall never forget him.

To Mr. Bill Anderson, our understanding assistant principal, and Miss Marion Fraser, our beloved dean of girls, we leave our hearty thanks for putting up with us even at risk of growing new grey hairs.

To Miss Marian Reed, our adviser, we wish to express our appreciation for helping us over the last hump in school life.

To Miss Nancy Abell we are grateful for her valuable time and efforts in guiding our Student Council through its final year at Central.

To the rest of our cherished faculty we leave our appreciation for always forgetting the many things we have done to cause their tempers and emotions to flare. Truly we shall miss them and feel certain that they will never forget us.

ARTICLE TWO—UNDERCLASSMEN

To the junior class we leave Central, the greatest high school on the face of the earth. May you always protect and defend her.

To the sophomores we hasten to warn you not to be too eager to finish because Uncle Sam is gonna' be watching you.

ARTICLE THREE—INDIVIDUALS

We, the Central Bible Club, leave our thanks to our beloved Miss Janet Robinson for showing us that our Supreme Counselor is the one who is above.

We, the football team and student body, leave our thanks to Coaches George Sparger and Bill Ball, for giving us that never-say-die spirit.

I, Letty Hill, leave my wonderfully sweet personality to Neddy Mason.

I, David Shaw, leave the last chapter of "Shaw Rackets" to brother Bobby in hopes that he will be mayor some day.

I, Big Bill Hanks, leave my ability to get my head stuck in the basketball net to Sam Williams with the anticipation that he will eat enough goobers to perform such a feat.

I, Garland Thomas, leave my alluring legs to anyone who has the necessary funds to contact Charles Atlas for Dynamic Tension.

I, Gus Dallas, leave and go home to my mama.

I, Tom Hayes, leave my football signals, Fallen Night, and Valentino haircut to be recorded in Miss Fraser's files.

We, Joe Townsend, Bill Calvert, and Bob Gunn, leave to future hall hawks all the girls we have snowed at Central.

We, Virginia and Ann Johnston, leave our famed double indemnity to Nancy and Mary Lou Davis.

I, Sylvia Davis, leave my magic disposition to be encased and set up as an example for future students at C. H. S.

We, Captains Cobb, Redd, Frantz, and Marsh leave our great athletic spirit in basketball, football, and track to the future teams at Central.

We, Al Moreau and Yulan Washburn, leave our aches and pains from editing two such major productions as the SNIPS AND CUTS and the Rambler to the future editors. May they rest in peace!

I, Laurie Clanton, leave my unusual ability for confusing teachers and causing general pandemonium in class to Henry Lomax.

I, Pat Riley, leave my all-round sweetness and friendliness to Peggy Daniel.

I, Donald Engle, leave my love for Fords and Jane Russell to any lover of the finer arts of life.

I, Dick Barnhardt, leave the esteemed title of being "so cute" to Jimmy Beatty.

I, Vann Trapp, leave my basso profundo voice, jokes, and junior girls to Andy Harper.

I, Gwynn Moose, leave my operatic voice and choral success to Delores Dollar.

I, Jimmy Bakis, bestow my friendly smile and 6'5" stature to Tommy Ray.

We, the BBFC (Billy Ball Fan Club), leave with regret our idol to be sighed over by our future members.

I, Dicky Jordan, leave my well-shined seat in detention hall to any great lover of C. H. S. willing to spend an extra hour daily in her hallowed halls.

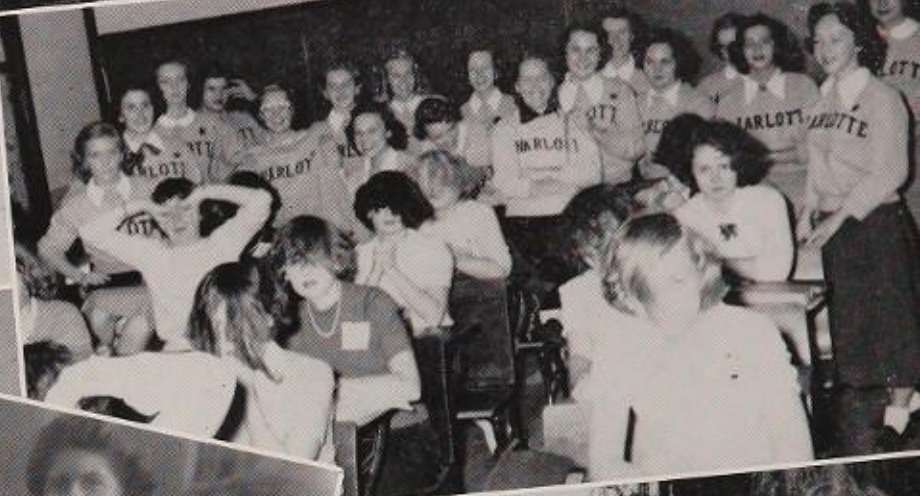

We, Charlie Nance, Bill Forehand, and Louis Nathanson, leave a tear gas gun to Coach Cropley with which to run people off the gym floor.

In closing, we would like to make one final wish. Abraham Lincoln once said "that this nation under God shall have a new birth of freedom, and that government of the people, by the people, and for the people shall not perish from the face of the earth." In the shadow of these great words, we leave our final hope, that the future students of Central High School may not have the fear of war hovering over them. We pray that some day perhaps all men shall be free!

Signed, sealed, and published, as the last will and testament of the senior class of Central High School, January 1st, 1952.

Barbara, we really had some great times last summer didn't we? Remember, when we were down at the beach and Davey Jack and G.D. were there. That was really a fantastic time at Ed Sitt's house. All of the girls all dressed up in sexy looking dresses, heels and ear rings. Here one and one looked. ~~Barbara~~ and Gokie in their shots and were looked. ~~Barbara~~ O.K., we looked real cute!! I sure did like the long hair newberry. Don Egghead, Bully and all of them were real cute and loads of fun and of course we couldn't forget old Sateback and his famous expression, "lets get married." We had fun at that Davidson rush party too even though we both showed for little hooper. Barbara, the ever well and we one'll never forget was at the Brown's cabin. It was too bad that we went a bye. (Had you and G.D. pick up all of the room, when we were sitting on the couch.

Dear Barbara,

Well here we are, annuals again. Things have really changed this year haven't they? Me not ~~known~~ over Eddie, you and J.G. are stronger than ever (I know you miss Kitty). No kidding I want you and J.G. to have the very best of everything in ~~the~~ world because if there ever was a fine couple you all are it.

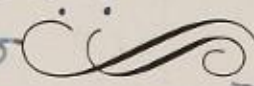

Barbara, I have never known a person with a sweeter disposition than you have. I know you have gotten sick of hearing me talk about Walter, but you don't realize how much it has meant to have someone to tell my troubles to.

The Charlotte

I don't want you to ever forget all of the frantic balls we have had. Remember taking Babs & J.B. back to Carol. Your spend the night parties, after choir - There are so many great times I can't begin to name all of the times.

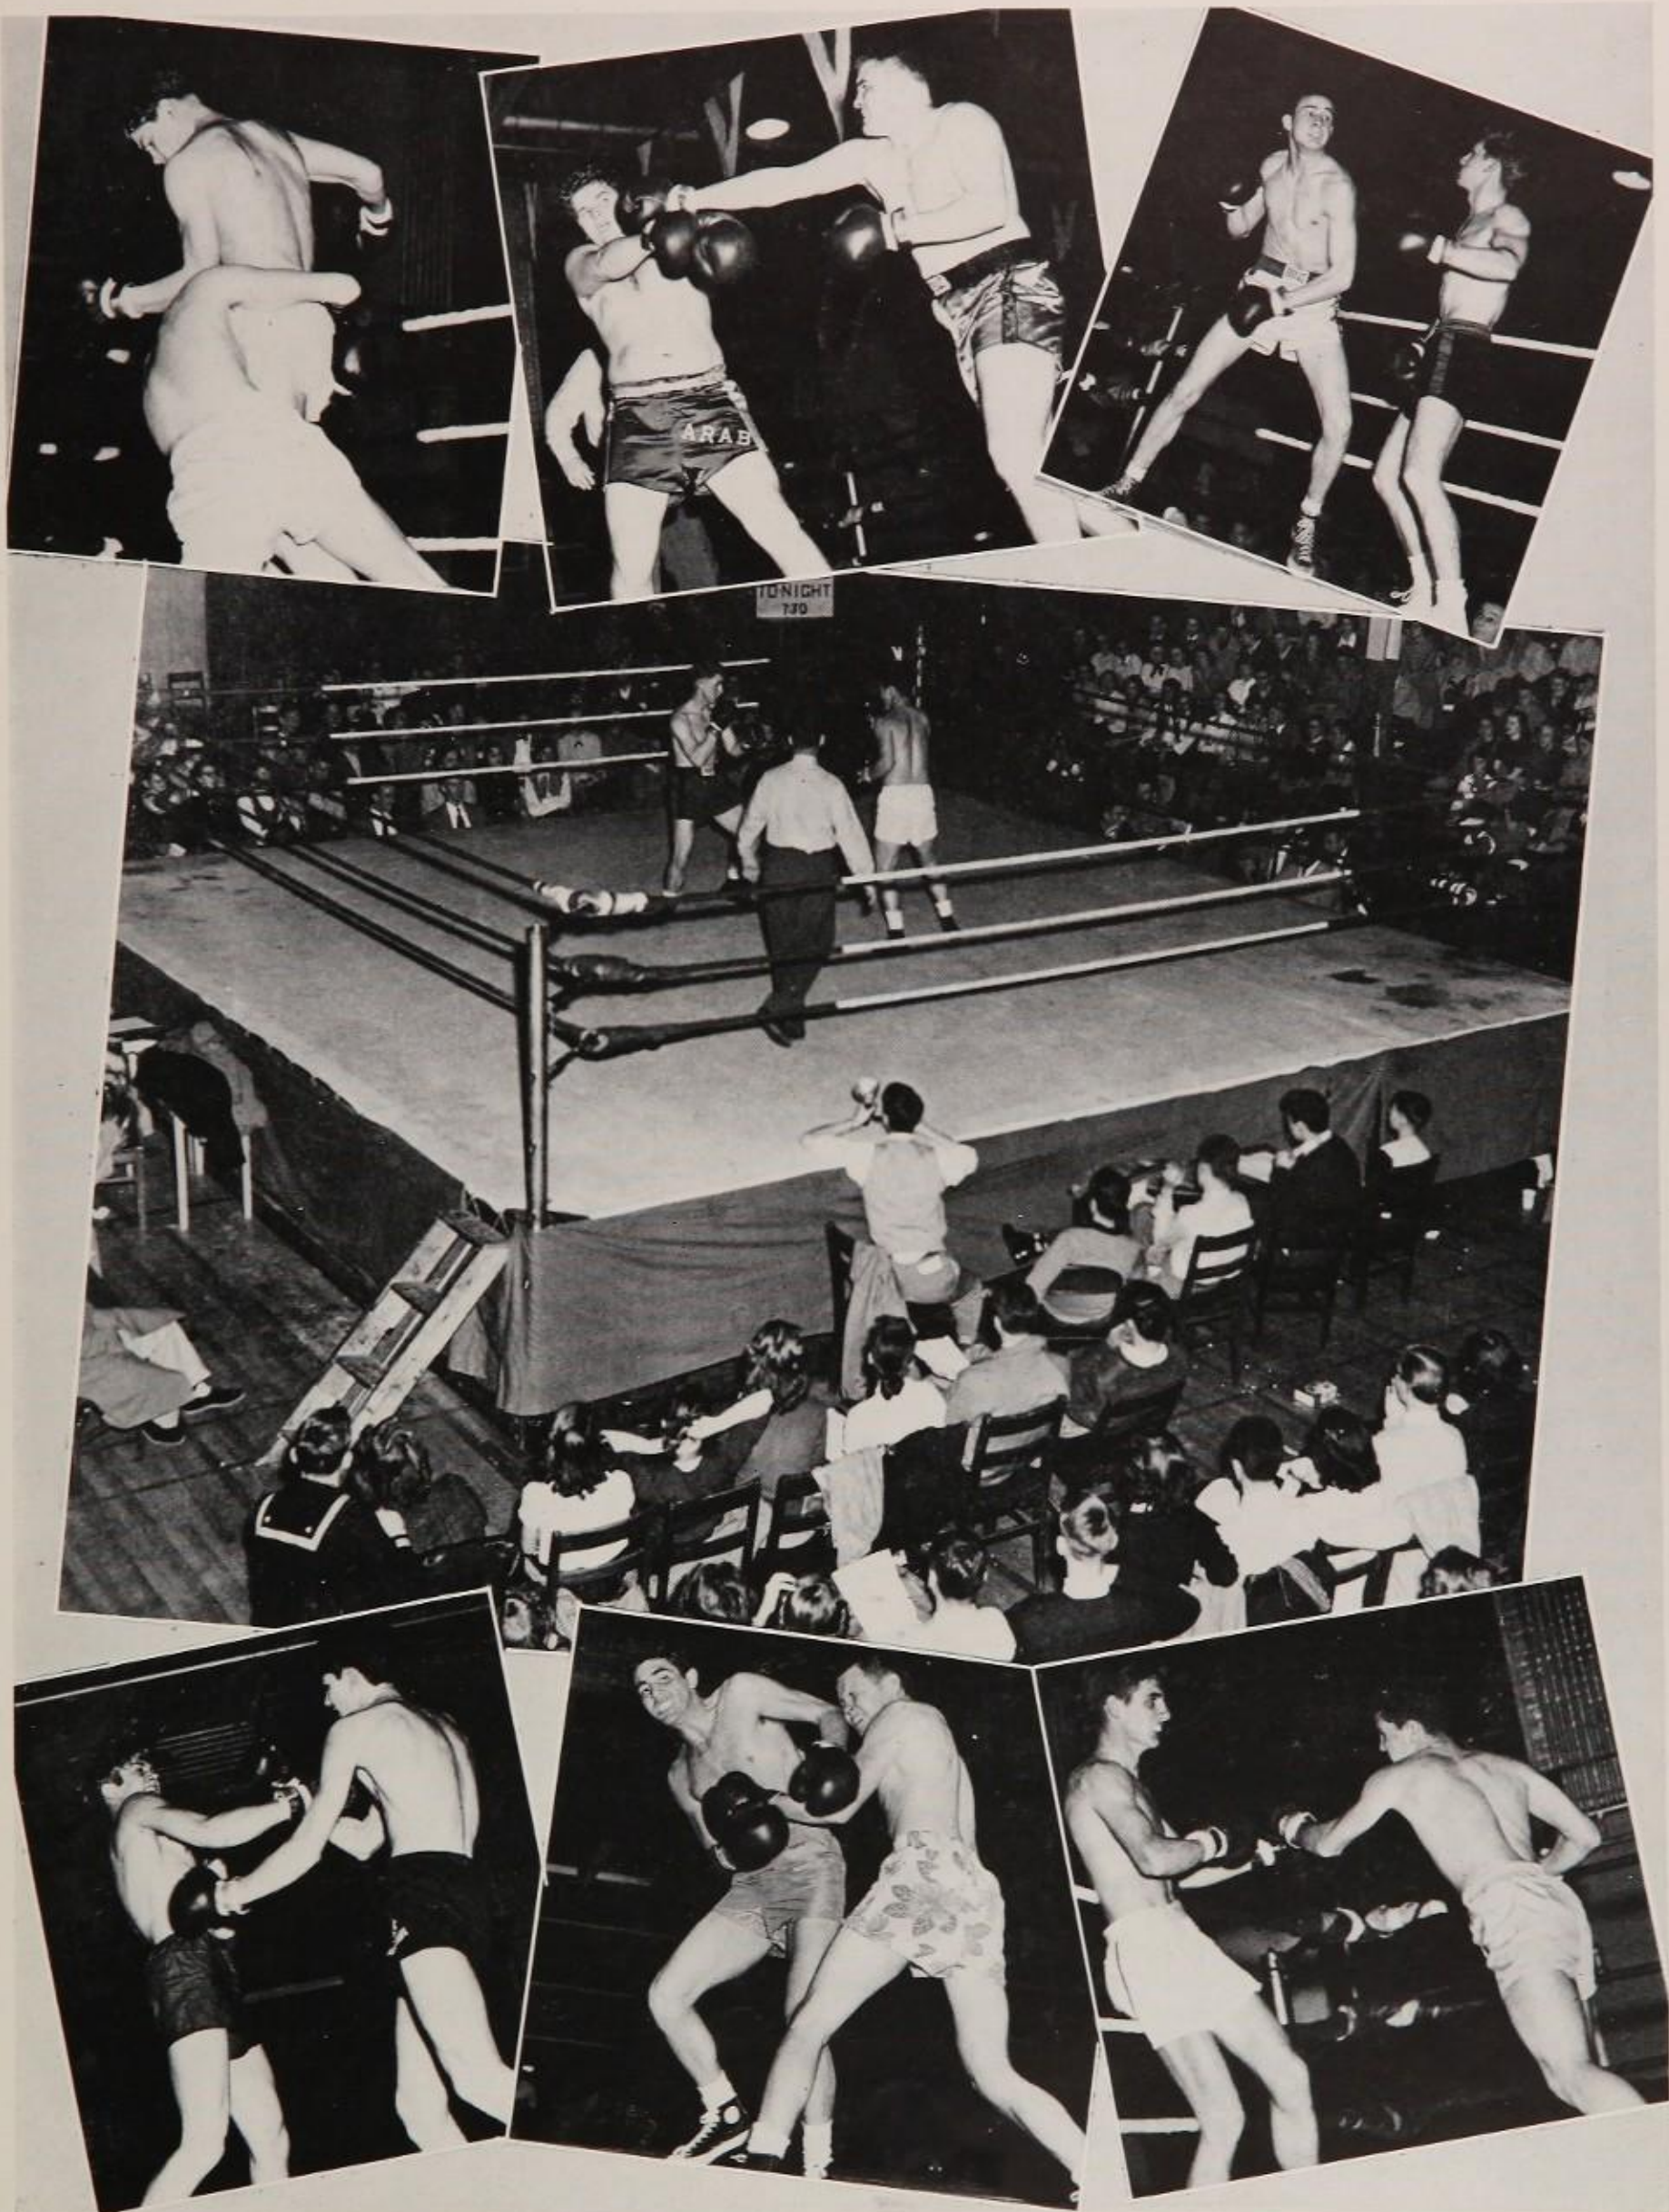

Chemical Laboratories

Some day if I ever get my licence I will be glad to take you any where in the wide world!!

I want to  thank you for helping me to have such a wonderful time in high school. Really Barbara don't forget me (fat girl)

Love always

Carol

Sad!! You may think that I am going to stab you, but you know "what" that I wouldn't do such a thing. We really have had the good times, every where we have gone and everything we have done. We have really enjoyed much. (Just don't you go and forget them.) I am really proud to be able to know and say that you are my friend,  come you know how I value your friendship. in the last three years. We really have had fun. We have this summer. Well, "Karey", all I really want to say, I just can't seem to find words. Since you are ruining me right this minute, I thought I would stab you, but I don't have the heart. Remember the times at the "Baw" and our long talks. You know I love you, even your bow-legs. Just be good and don't hit the beach too hard this summer. You know "Little Red", well he likes me and "Sally". Sincerely tho', Barbara lets not let our friendship fade away. You are one of the funniest and cutest girl in Central. You can take any kidding and still in good humor and laugh about our mistakes. That happened is the past. Remember me and let our good times go on forever!! Love you loads!! "Dorothy"

Just don't know how to say how much your friendship has meant to me. I only know that girls like you make school a better place. The Best I think is a sweet & fine person. Remember Dear Barbie the great times in Bailey's English class. You're friend always, But I will

It's hard to believe that we're about to graduate from Central and leave all the gay times and memories behind.
I certainly have enjoyed knowing you these three years.
You are a wonderful girl who I will always remember.
Stay real sweet and think of me sometime when you think of Central. Good luck at Wake Forest next year and also lots of luck to you + Babb.
Love ya, Nancy Carpenter

Well "Wale-tail,"

This is it! I don't know exactly what to say but here goes.

We have really had some great times together these past years that we have known each other and some good hell-raising good times.

Barbara, I just want to tell you how much our friendship has meant to me - how wonderful a friend you are when one has troubles - such as me -

The parties, the little trips, and so forth have really been great.

Success is really due to you and you deserve every ounce you get in the future. The top round of the ladder of success is hard to reach but you are well on your way. Your personality is only tops and is the reason for your many friends - boys or otherwise!

Best wishes to you in your future life especially with J.C. He is really one of the finest boys in the world. I hope you will continue to love him as you do now and the best will always be yours.

Remember me in the years to come as the girl with the problems -

Love ya loads,

Martha

Barbara,

It's been great knowing you from the 1st grade on. We have had some knocked out balls together. Don't forget all the good times we have had. Lots of luck to a very cute and fine girl.
